

Please do not alter the present 'do not call law'. If banks want more business they can become more competitive.